Dear Colleagues,

NDIA Greater Los Angeles Chapter is pleased to announce our Association's Annual West Coast Dinner, scheduled on February 27, 2009 at the Hyatt Regency Century Plaza, 2025 Avenue of the Stars, Los Angeles, CA 90067. A hosted general reception for all attendees begins at 6:30 p.m. in the California Lounge followed by the dinner seating at 7:45 p.m. in the Los Angeles Ballroom. Dress will be formal / black tie. Note: Attendees will be required to present a picture ID for security processing.

Our guest speaker will be Lieutenant General Larry James, Commander, 14th Air Force, AFSPC, and Commander, JFCC Space, USSTRATCOM. Lieutenant General Tom Sheridan, Commander of the Space and Missile Systems Center at Los Angeles AFB, will attend along with other government military and civilian guests. During the program, the Bob Hope Distinguished Citizen Award will be presented to Lieutenant General Donald Cromer, USAF (Ret).

The West Coast Dinner is a major NDIA event that is designed to bring the defense and space industry on the west coast together with national, regional and local leaders from government and industry. As an approved event in compliance with DoD Standards of Conduct directives, NDIA will invite DoD and other government guests, including both military and civilian personnel.

Individual seats are priced at $350. Tables will be set up with ten seats and are priced at $3000. Please complete and return the enclosed reservation form indicating your commitment, or use the online seat/table purchase capability. Companies desiring to have government guests at their tables should indicate the total number of such guests on the form. <http://www.ndia-glac.org/>

If you desire a guest room at the Hyatt Regency Century Plaza, please make reservations directly with the hotel at (310) 277-2000. The special event rate is $225/night, February 25-29, but rooms are limited; please call as soon as possible and mention the NDIA West Coast Dinner.

We are looking forward to enjoying this event with you on February 27th. See you then!

Sincerely,

Jeanne Innis-Olson
