CALTECH/MIT ENTERPRISE FORUM ANNOUNCES A SPECIAL EVENT ON SPACE VENTURING: THE EMERGING BUSINESS OF SPACE TRANSPORT, RESEARCH AND COMMERCIALIZATION

From Space Tourism to Space-based Entertainment
SATURDAY, APRIL 23, 2005 AT CALTECH

Thursday, March 17, 2005 – CSA will participate in a special forum on Space Venturing to take place on Saturday, April 23, 2005 at Caltech from 8:30a.m. to 11a.m.

Come join a group of space venturers who represent the vanguard of the emerging business of space transport, research and commercialization. Some of the topics to be covered include opportunities in space tourism, launch vehicle technologies, nanosatellites and the complex governmental and inter-governmental issues presented by private launch and overflight activities.

The forum will be moderated by Alexandra Barnett, Executive Director of the Chabot Space and Science Center and former host of the BBC series 'Final Frontier.' Panelists will include executives from Vulcan, SpaceX and American Mojave Aerospace, developers of the history-making SpaceShip One.

Tickets are $40 and can be purchased by calling (626) 395-3921 or online at www.entforum.caltech.edu.
